Looking for a project? This one's not for the faint of heart—but it is for the savvy buyer with vision. Set on a spacious lot right across from the park, this property offers tons of potential for redevelopment or a serious renovation. The house needs significant work, but the location is a winner—close to schools, shopping, and major transit routes. There's a huge backyard with room for a future garage, garden, or whatever you dream up. Whether you're tearing down or transforming, this is your chance to create something special in a great neighbourhood.
